

2025 Training Portfolio

December Report

Anna McCorkle

At this time, many member families have someone transitioning into an Australian Apprenticeship as we move into 2026 - be sure to familiarise yourselves with the Australian Apprenticeship National Website, to assist with the process.

<https://www.apprenticeships.gov.au/>

Make yourself known to your child's contact in their appointed Apprentice Connect Australia Provider (ACAP) – as these are the pathway to information, supports, mentoring and the Living Away From Home (LAFHA) allowance should your child be eligible.

<https://www.apprenticeships.gov.au/about-apprenticeships/apprentice-connect-australia-provider>

Fact sheet

<https://content.apprenticeships.gov.au/sites/default/files/2024-07/Information%20for%20Apprentices%20-%20010724.pdf>

It is important to be aware that as an Australian Apprentice, your child and their employer could be eligible for additional financial incentives and supports, such as the Key Apprenticeship Program (KAP) or Australian Apprentice Training Support Payment (AATSP).

<https://www.apprenticeships.gov.au/home/financial-supports-australian-apprentices-and-their-employers-continue-1-january-2026>