Consultation Process

The four key stages

1 Stage One - Information Release

Members will receive:

- the current Constitution;
- the proposed draft Constitution;
- the illustrative draft By-laws; and
- explanatory notes outlining the proposed changes.

2 Stage Two - Consultation

Federal Council will meet with State Councils and hold online information sessions for members.

These sessions are an opportunity to explain the proposed changes, answer questions and, most importantly, listen to your feedback.

HOW TO PROVIDE FEEDBACK

1. Online feedback form - available on the ICPA (Aust) website.
2. By email - feedback@icpaaust.org.au
3. Online member consultation sessions.

FEEDBACK CLOSING DATE 31 JAN 2027

3 Stage Three - Consideration

Federal Council and the Governance Subcommittee - Constitution Review Group will carefully consider every submission received.

Where appropriate, changes will be made to the draft Constitution before it is finalised.

4 Stage Four - Revised Draft

Once the consultation process is complete, the revised draft Constitution will be distributed to members in accordance with the required notice periods, allowing members sufficient time to review the document before it is presented for consideration at the Annual General Meeting (AGM).
