Fiona Nash to Tackle the Disparity Between City and Country Education

ICPA (Aust) welcomed the announcement this week by Senator the Honourable Bridget McKenzie, Minister for Regionalisation, Regional Communications and Regional Education that Fiona Nash has been appointed to the role of Regional Education Commissioner, to tackle the disparity between city and country education.

ICPA (Aust) Federal President Alana Moller said "ICPA (Aust) would like to congratulate and welcome Fiona Nash to the role of Regional Education Commissioner. We look forward to the opportunity to work closely with Ms Nash in the future."

"We are grateful to the Federal Government for recognising the need to address the unique needs of regional, rural, and remote education through initiatives such as this appointment, a valuable recognition of the need to address the inequities associated with educating geographically isolated children which ICPA has been drawing attention to for fifty years".
