

BOOK REVIEW

- Grace on the Court -

by MAGENTA WILLIAMS | AGED 9 | NILPINNA STATION

In the book, Grace, which is the main character, goes to a new school with her friends Mia and Stella. She loves netball and she really wants to be a professional. She got put into A-grade netball team at her new school. Her and her older brother didn't get along very well and then they decided to make a music video for tickets to their favorite boy band. But there was a bit of tension between Grace and her brother's best friend Sebastian. I really loved the book because there was a lot of netball and drama. I really enjoyed how they ended up winning the netball final and how they ended up getting to see the boy band. 'Grace on the Court' is written by NSW Swifts and Australian Diamond Netball player Maddy Proud. I am looking forward to reading the sequel "Grace back on the Court".

Magenta Williams with her copy of Grace on the Court.

PORT AUGUSTA BRANCH

Alex - Wilkatana station attended her first campdraft at Carrieton

Will - Wilkatana Station completed his first season at Quorn Cricket club